

As per instructions from the Higher Education department, Government of West Bengal, dated 13th August 2020, All applicants who have already paid application fees for online admission process this session will get their money back in their bank accounts after the application process is over. Applicants are however again instructed to verify their forms carefully before upload as no changes will be entertained after final submission.

Principal, Ramsaday College